The Asian Art of Management from Bhagavad Gita

Date: 07/09/2022

Center for Online Programs organised an Expert Talk on the topic "The Asian Art of Management from Bhagavad Gita". The Event was coordinated by Dr. M. Bhuvaneswari, Deputy Head – Center for Online Programs. Ms. Sinduja. S, Deputy Head – Center for Online Programs welcomed the gathering and Dr. M. Bhuvaneswari introduced the Guest Speaker Dr. D. S. Narayanan, Chartered Engineer, Associate member of Institution of Engineer, Editor – Visvaayudha (Monthly Magazine), Advisor of HOSTIA.

The Guest Speaker highlighted the importance of Bhagavad Gita and gave his deep insight on it, by drawing attention towards the art of management through various narrative stories from Gita. He quoted the story of the archer from Gita and explained why one shouldn't be attached to the result of the goal. He also explained how Bhagavad Gita falls into three parts comprising six chapters each and brought out each parts' ideology as: Human weaknesses and strengths, How God describes his own creations' uniqueness and How an individual can evolve.

This session highlighted narratives of Gita like:

- The purpose of life is to be useful to others
- How one should view and solve a problem by using deep penetrating thinking
- How one can teach well by listening well

Dr. D. S. Narayanan recommended the book "Gita for Professionals" to the gathering, Dr. M. Bhuvaneswari summed up the session and the overall understanding of the concept. The session came to an end with the vote of thanks rendered by Ms. Sinduja. S.
